Former Official Of U.S. Treasury Urges Tax Cut

John W. Hanes Tells Congress That Taxpayer Relief Should Be Given

ENDORSES CUT IN INCOME TAXES

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN

WASHINGTON, April 24. -Former Undersecretary of the Treasury John W. Hanes told Congress today that the treasury surplus will be sufficiently large to provide effective taxpayer relief and to make at the same time substantial reductions in the federal debt.

Hanes, now chairman of the board of trustees of the tax foundation, appeared before the Senate Finance Committee to again endorse the House-approved GOP measure cutting federal income taxes up to 30

The former treasury official declared his "whole-hearted support" for the program cutting spending to the limit as voted by Congress, of reducing taxes as proposed by the House measure and of appying to debt reduction the surplus that will result

Cut Government Cost

Hanes called for a cut in the high cost of the government which he showed in a chart has risen 371 per cent from 1939 to 1947 According to Hanes' chart other increases during the same period were 70 per cent for manufactured products. 77 per cent for clothing and 93 per cent for food. Hanes said:

"If we really mean to go about reducing the price level and cance! out some of our wartime excessesthen let's begin at the point where (Continued on Page Two)

Wheat Market Soon To Be Stabilized Big Farm Organizations Favor London Plan Safeguard Unification Of Army And Navy

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON, April 24.-The three major United States farm organizations-the Farm Bureau, Grange and National Council of Farmer Co-ops-have endorsed American participation in an international wheat

They favor the wheat plan now being negotiated by upwards of 20 nations in London which would stabilize the world wheat marked of the future

Under the plan, nations which normally import wheat would agree to buy so many tons of the grain. The exporting nations, such as the United States, Argentina and Australia, would in turn agree to produce a given amount of wheat and sell it to the other countries at specified

A similar plan, negotiated in 1942 between the United States and There was an advertisement in the United Kingdom, was disrupted by the war. This new plan is an outgrowth of that proposal but represents a larger scale. Endorsement by the three leading United States farm organizations was seen as an indication that the American farmer is looking ahead ters while taking a bath, has just to the day when wheat surpluses might threaten his prosperity.

WHO'S GUILTY?

It was a rainy night in Rio when the fine brown frame of Linda was found in a cement mixer by the old lamplighter.

At sundown, she had last been seen by Laura with a guy named Joe near a bewitched empty mansion where celery stalks at midnight.

"Call the police!" the lamplighter shouted, and in five minutes more Flatfoo: Floogie arrived. "It's murder," he says, "aint that a shame? I wonder who done

"She was the girl of my dreams, my one love," Joe said tearfully, "Put the blame

"Don't blame me, she was a friend of yours. I'm a stranger here myself. I've been home all by myself all the time. Ask Bill, he may be your man."

"Now be honest with me," said the snooperman, "Don't tell me that story, it couldn't be true. Another night like this and I'll . . . "

"I'm confessin' " a voice cried out. "I did it for sentimental reasons and I'd do it again. I don't care who knows it. If you only knew the heartaches I suffered when I saw her with the man I love. In a moment of madness I put her out of this world because I can't stand losing you, Joe. But if you don't love me, it makes no difference now."

Now guess who dunnit* *Answer: Laura, since she was the one who saw Linda with Joe.

Seek U. S. Control Chandler, in a long address from the floor, stated: "There are highly articulate persons, some of them sincere, who seek the return of Federal government control of printing paper. It is their thesis that a trust or cartel controls newsprint production and price, probably and presumably in combination with big city publishers, and chain newspaper operators.

He said: "They allege that the big city publishers and chain are freezing out the independent one-city publishers. This condition is serious, if true. There is a lack of facts to support the charge."

The ANPA president noted that not exact figures are available since 1940 on newspaper mortality, but he stressed that failure to survive can be placed squarely on the own-ers' inability to serve and interest the buying public.

Buying More Newspapers He said the people of the United State voluntarily are buying more newspapers, and at a higher price, than ever before in history, and there are few publishers, if any, who would not increase sales and profits if more newsprint were available.

Chandler continued: "The cry for federal relief and, in substance, government subsidy, comes in most strident tone from the so-called specialized press. "There is a vital distinction be-

-Three persons faced assault and battery charges today in connection with telephone strike violence, and the New Orleans district of Southern Bell reported new cases of "sabotage" of telephone equipment. Harry B. Lackey said that a cable, serving about 75 telephones, had been cut in a New Orleans residential district, and that wires were stripped from a terminal box, putting a number of other dial telephones out of order. Fred Root and John C. Simmons, not listed as employes of the telephone company, were charged with an attack on F. W. Petty, a supervisor, and William R. Seay a plant department employe. Mrs. Mary Seales, 19, was charged as one of a group of women who attacked a worker.

Former Danzig Official Speaks On Soviet Union

New York Attorney, Who Was Head Of Treasury In Danzig, Talks To Kiwanians

New Castle Kiwanis Club members heard Dr. Bernhard Kamnitzer, of New York, former judge of the Free City of Danzig, and a former member of the Danzig Volgstag and Senate, speak on "Russia—Recollec- guest of Rabbi Iwan J. Gruen, pastions and Reflections," in which he tor Temple Israel, former chief rabbi gave a new insight to many on what, of the Free City of Danzig, and to the people of the United States, member of Kiwanis. seem to be peculiarities and problems with little hope of being solved.

During his political career in Dan-zig, Dr. Bernhard stated, he has been a Social Democrat, and as such the natural antagonist of the Communist. He was therefore much sur-prised when he was invited to come alighted from a city bus in the to Russia while head of the treasury to discuss trade relations with the Russians, who were seeking ships. Union for several weeks, and while he did not pretend that his short stay in Russia has made him an expert on the Soviet Union, yet this experience gave him definite impressions about the land and people, and later when a lot of Soviet people came to Danzig, these were furthered. Therefore it was natural that he should follow developments in Russia with great interest. He was of the opinion that Russia's rise to that of a world power has been so rapid that she has not had time to adjust her-self to her new position.

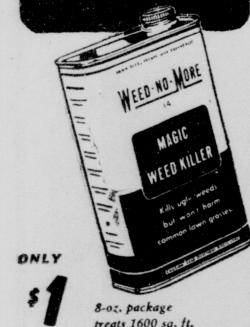

self to her new position.

He was impressed by the statement of the late Mr. Lunatscharski, then commisar of education, who said that Russia's problem was that too many people write and speak about the Soviet Union, many of whom have not been in Russia long enough to know what they are talking about. Explaining Russia's reluctance to admit foreigners to her country, Mr. Lunatscharski stated that Russia was waging an unique political and economic experiment, trying to weld into one union, 49 different nationalities, most of them composed of uneducated people. In this, they did not want to be disturbed from the outside and have foreigners tell them and their people have foreigners tell them and their people what they should do. Crucial Problem

One of the most crucial problems of to-day is whether there is any chance that the atmosphere of mutual district governing the relations between the Soviet Union and the other major powers can be replaced by that sense of cooperation and nutual understanding on which the world Quoting Raymond B. Fosdick, president f the Rockefeller Foundation, the former ass said, "What is required is a determi-lation to be accurately informed, to see things as they are. From VJ-Day until end of the increase in the wholesale price of farm products jumped 47 percent. Following OPA control end until March the increase was 12 percent on farm products.

Bunting said that manufacturing represents only about 20 percent of the business picture but he de-

"We have a definite share of the responsibility for the cost of living. "We have been urging the members of NAM to, under no circumstances, take any advantage of the present mark situation."

Bunting said he thought it was important for everyone to understand that during the OPA control period there was a very artificial maximum selling price system in the country. He said that prices were set for items that were not even available to the public, except through the black market.

Fred Allen Snubs 'Honorary' N.B.C. Vice Presidency

Post Offered Comedian To Make Him Forgive 'Dim-Out' On Last Program

NEW YORK, April 24.—(INS)-Fred Allen, radio comedian, declined today an "honorary" vicepresidency of the National Broad-

N. B. C. offered the post to Fred in the expectation that he would forvice and forget that he had been "dimmed out" last Sunday when he wanted to make a crack about NBC vice-presidents.

Allen said that he couldn't accept the honorary position "because of the press of other duties" and because of his "health". It was obvious however that Allen was pleased with the attitude of NBC. The furore started last Sunday when Allen was cut off the air for 25 seconds because he sought to discuss a "vice president in charge of program-ends". Allen wanted to say that this type of vice president saved up seconds to cut from the ends of programs and that when he accumulated two weeks of seconds he took a vacation.

Bob Hope and Red Skelton also were "dimmed out" when they started to make cracks about Fred Al-

District Attorney Receives Word From Los Angeles On Man Wanted Here

COURT HOUSE

District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson said today that he has been notified by the police authorities of Los Angeles, Cal., that Elias Charles, alias Louis Charles, formerly of East Long avenue has posted $16,000 bail and is temporarily at liberty. Of the $16,000, $15,000 is on a charge of armed robbery in Los Angeles, and $1,000 is to answer a charge of burglary in New Castle.

According to Mr. Donaldson, the Los Angeles police say that Charles, n company with another man, shortly before noon Friday, March 7, entered the Roberts Rancho Mar-ket, at 4030 Eagle Rock Boulevard, and at the point of a gun robbed the manager of the market of approximately $14,000, only a few minutes after an armored car had deposited the money in the store.

Charles is wanted in New Castle in connection with the burglary of the Strouss-Hirshberg Company store on North Mill street, January 15, when $4000 was taken.

Mr. Donaldson said Charles would be indicted here but probably would not be returned for trial unless he is freed in Los Angeles. If he is convicted and sentenced there, a detainer can be placed against him which would serve to bring him back and try him when his California sentence would expire. By indicting him now the statute of limitations will not operate to bar prosecution no matter how many years elapse.

THEY SURE DO A JOB, SAYS MR. McGIVELRY

Horatius Q. McGivelry has just made a trip on one of the new Federal trucks and our old friend from Spring Hill is exuding enthusiasm like sap from a maple tree.

"It's remarkable" said he. "It's something you can't believe until you experience it. Those Federals can do anything an ordinary truck can do but do it better and more of it. If I were in the trucking business" continued Mr. Mc-Givelry, "Federal would be my choice."

Navy Enlistment Offers Young Men Many Advantages

Peacetime Navy now offers better advantages to young men seeking a trade or a career than ever before in history, Chief Burelli of the local Navy recruiting station said today. The new training schools, continued the chief, are giving expert training in more than 50 trades, of which several cannot be completely studied elsewhere. These schools are turning out better men, prepared to make a better grade in the Navy and civilian life afterwards The chief listed only a few of the trades taught in the Navy. Among them were electronics, photography, aviation mechanics, music, aerography, pharmacy and radia techniques. Besides the advantage of such trade training, the chief cited the high pay scales and better living conditions, including air-conditioned ships, and the colorful life of travel and excitement. Chief Burrelli said there are still many vacancies in the Navy and offered to discuss the entire program with interested young men. The local recruiting station is located at Post Office building and is open daily except Sunday from eight a. m. to 4:30 p. m. and on Monday nights from seven to 9:30

Youths From Five Counties Will Gather At Slippery Rock Thursday And Friday

LOCAL YOUTHS TO BE ON PROGRAM

Lawrence county will be represented by the officers and their advisors of the F.F.A. Chapters, at the tenth annual roundup of the Future Farmers of America at Slippery Rock, Thursday and Friday of this week, when farm youths from five surrounding counties in the local district, will gather for a leadership training conference.

Assembly will take place on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock at "The Hut," on the Slippery Rock State Teachers College campus. The group leaders include James C. Fink, agricultural education advisor of Lawrence, Beaver and Butler counties; E. C. Wiggins, of Springfield, Mass., former county vocational agricultural advisor, now located with the Eastern States Farmers Exchange; L. H. Lebo, advisor of Lebanon and Berks counties; and G. Floyd Dye, advisor of Somerset and Fayette Following conferences in the afternoon and early evening, there will be an agricultural carnival in the The Hut, in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snyder.

Contests Scheduled

Contests on potato judging, insects and diseases, weed identification, farm mechanics, field crops and seed identification, and vegetable seed identification take place Friday morning. Howard F. Fox, instructor in vocational agriculture at East Brook is in charge of the farm mechanics contest; and Jacob Bumgardner, of New Wilmington high school, in charge of the vegetable seed identification contest. Irwin Stunkard is in charge of the mushball tournament Friday afternoon.

The program will close with a banquet at 5:45 p.m. Friday, in the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church, the speaker being Dr. S. C. Gamble, number of points will be awarded a large bronze plaque at the banquet This plaque has been rotating for ten years and was won last year by the East Brook high school chapter, of which Howard F. Fox, vocational agriculture teacher is
